Voices of Participants

Professor Dr. David D. Chapman

The California State University Stanislaus

Although I would like to count myself as a well-traveled scholar and professor, I have never experienced such attention to detail and human care as I received by the brilliant staff, administration, and the very students I taught and learned from in the CNUISS program. I will cherish my experiences there for the rest of my life. I was very happy to partake in this well-established program during the summer of 2018 as a music instructor to a small class of very gifted students. During this program, students from a myriad of places were able to share wondrous moments with each other and their instructors as we all became immersed in the truly rich and beautiful culture of Korea. To prospective students and fellow colleagues, do not let an opportunity such as this one pass you by.

Alexis Loudermilk

University of Central Oklahoma, USA

As I stepped off the bus at Chonnam National University, I was warmly greeted by a group of Korean buddies, I did not know one person in the International Summer Session program, but that changed quickly. By the end of the program, I knew so many individuals from around the world. Their kindness, hospitality and the time and effort they devote to this program make it so outstanding. Learning from so many individuals from different countries, backgrounds, practices and languages broadened my perspective. I came to realize that we all have many differences, but we have much more in common. The CNUISS offers a unique experience connecting me with 200 participants from 21 countries. The best part of the program was learning from my Korean friends, and the students and professors from all over the world. I also enjoyed the class I took there, because I learned different perspectives on cultures and languages across the globe. Gwangju will always have a special place in my heart.

You will see the beauty of Korea – both the beauty of the country and of its people, inside and out. Studying at a different university in a different country really sounds challenging. But at Chonnam National University, I never felt the fear of being left out just because I am new to the campus. All I felt was happiness and fulfillment. Aside from learning new things through academics, you also get to discover a lot about other cultures such as their education, traditions, costumes, everything! Here, you will also enjoy the tours at the best locations. I am very proud to say that given a short span of time, I gained a newfound family. Being a CNUISS 2018 participant is really a life-changing journey because here, you will always feel that you belong.

Alice Yu

University of Missouri, USA

Ever since returning back to the University of Missouri, I have been encouraging many people to study abroad with CNUISS because I truly believe it is worth it. From the courses and cultural trips, to the Korean buddy system and the campus, I was able to build so many memorable friendships and find a home at CNU. In the classroom, I was able to participate in discussions with students from across the world who all had diverse personal experiences. On the extremely organized and well-planned cultural trips, we received opportunities to explore multiple landmark locations in and around Gwangju. The Korean buddy system made it easy for me to explore exciting areas surrounding campus and the city. The campus itself became a playground of discovery. I am someone who likes to say the best is yet to come, but I sincerely and wholeheartedly believe I had the best times of my life at Chonnam National University.
