

IMMIGRATION, CRIME AND CITIZENSHIP IN TROUBLED TIMES

European Society of Criminology.
Working group in Immigration,
Crime and Citizenship

Programme

Thursday, May 9

9:30 h. Opening ceremony

Plenary Room	José Manuel Cabra Academic Secretary of Faculty of Law. University of Málaga Ana Isabel Cerezo Head of Institute of Criminology, University of Malaga May-Len Skilbrei (University of Oslo, Norway) and María Joao Guía (University of Coimbra, Portugal) Coordinators of the ESC WG Immigration, Crime and Citizenship
---------------------	---

10:00 h. Plenary

Plenary Room	May-Len Skilbrei (University of Oslo, Norway): 'The Power of Sexuality and Crime in Contemporary Migration Debates'
---------------------	---

11:00 h. Coffee break

11:30 h. Panel sessions 1

Plenary room	EU border policies I
	Chair: Valeria Ferraris 1. EU's Migration Partnership with Africa: Friends or Foes? Sandra Dumitrescu (EU Capacity Building Mission in Mali) and Maria João Guia (University of Coimbra, Portugal) 2. Migration remote control: are the EU accepting breaches to fundamental rights for something in return? Valeria Ferraris (University of Turin, Italy) 3. The new administrative regulation of EU external borders: ETIAS screening rules on border risk management, David San Martín Segura (University of La Rioja, Spain) 4. Discretionary migration control: A case study of detention in the French-Spanish border, Iker Barbero (University of the Basque Country, Spain)

Room A	The judicial system dealing with foreigners
	Chair: María Contreras

	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. A (cr)immigrant ban? Opening the 'black-box' behind decision-making processes in the courthouse, Eleonora Di Molfetta (Erasmus University Rotterdam, The Netherlands)</li> <li>2. The Role of the Juridisch Loket [Legal Counter] for Foreign Nationals in Detention: An Investigation Conducted in Detention Center Zeist, the Netherlands, Joanne van der Leun and Julia Rootenberg (Leiden University, The Netherlands)</li> <li>3. When immigration policy prevails over criminal policy: responses towards irregular immigrants' delinquency in Spain, María Contreras Román (University of Malaga, Spain)</li> <li>4. Foreign people confidence in the Spanish judicial and police systems, Elena Casado Patricio (University of Malaga, Spain)</li> </ol>
--	---

Room B	Hate, gender, sex and crime
	Chair: Enara Garro Carrera <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Emerging data on hate crimes: May the protected legal markers' conviction rate be affected by gender?, Iñigo Gordon Benito (University of the Basque Country, Spain)</li> <li>2. Second report on hate incidents in Euskadi: assessment on the "bias landscape" and possible coping strategies, Enara Garro Carrera (University of the Basque Country, Spain)</li> <li>3. Refuge and gender in the university: A study between Spain and Italy, Irene Estrada Moreno, Ana Ruiz Mosquera and María de las Olas Palma García (University of Malaga, Spain)</li> <li>4. Iceland and migrants in police perspectives, Eyrún Eypórsdóttir (University of Akureyri, Iceland)</li> </ol>

13:00 h. Lunch

14:00 h: Panel sessions 2

Plenary room	Integration and exclusion
	Chair: M.H. Kox <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. The transition to adult life of unaccompanied foreign minors and social exclusion, Ana Cristina Ruiz Mosquera, Irene Estrada Moreno and María de las Olas Palmas García (University of Malaga, Spain)</li> <li>2. Margizens – exclusion and punishment of the Romanian Roma community in Poland, Witold Klaus (Polish Academy of Sciences, Poland)</li> <li>3. Family reunification of migrant women in the Portuguese context, Marco Ribeiro Henriques (Nova University of Lisbon, Portugal)</li> <li>4. Deprived of healthy and secure living conditions, (bright) future dreams and mobility: The pains of being unauthorized in the Netherlands, M.H. Kox (Erasmus University Rotterdam, The Netherlands) and M.M. Boone (Leiden University, The Netherlands)</li> </ol>

Room A	EU border policies II
	Chair: Maria Joao Guia <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Criminalising migrants by the Law: proposal of a new Return Directive, Diego Boza Martínez (University of Cadiz, Spain)</li> <li>2. Vulnerabilities and Fundamental Rights in a heterogeneous EU, Maria</li> </ol>

	João Guia (University of Coimbra, Portugal) 3. Push-back operations in the Mediterranean sea: human smuggling at a crossroads, Salvatore Orlando (University of Palermo, Italy) 4. Irregular migration – is it a threat to Polish borders?, Magdalena Perkowska (University of Bialystok, Poland)
--	---

Room B	Trafficking in human beings
	Chair: Silvia Rodríguez-López 1. The impatient legislator(s) and the human trafficking issue, Riccardo Ercole Omodei (University of Palermo, Italy) 2. The victim of trafficking in human beings as an author of crime, Margarita Valle Mariscal de Gante (Complutense University of Madrid, Spain) 3. A Critical Assessment of Criminal Policies Concerning Human Trafficking in Spain: The “3P” Paradigm in Numbers, Silvia Rodríguez-López (University of A Coruna, Spain) 4. Labour trafficking in Chinese restaurants in the Netherlands and the role of Dutch immigration policies. A qualitative analysis of investigative case files, Masja van Meeteren (Leiden University, The Netherlands)

15:30 h: Panel sessions 3

Plenary room	Deportation and detention
	Chair: José A. Brandariz 1. Removing EU nationals: An unexplored dimension of the UE deportation system, José A. Brandariz (University of A Coruna, Spain) 2. The criminal deportation of foreigners in Chile: towards a new way of understanding punishment?, Roberto Dufraix-Tapia (Arturo Prat University, Chile) 3. Pressured into a preference to leave? A quantitative analysis, Arjen Leerkes (Erasmus University Rotterdam, The Netherlands) 4. Path of detention of migrants in Spain: from CATEs to CIEs, Devika Pérez Medina and Diego Boza Martínez (University of Cadiz, Spain)

Room A	Policing foreigners
	Chair: Giulia Fabini 1. Border guards' and courts' view on facilitation of irregular migration – the case of Poland, Monika Szulecka (Polish Academy of Sciences, Poland) 2. Migration flows and 'informality' in Naples, Michelangelo Pascali (Parthenope University of Naples, Italy) 3. Policing the internal borders in the refugees' crisis: what role for the international relations?, Giulia Fabini (University of Bologna, Italy)

Room B	Children and teenagers in migratory contexts
	Chair: Fátima Pérez 1. On researching children's rights, asylum processes and the criminalization of illegal entry: Methodological peculiarities and rights-based research methods in immigration studies, Ioannis Papadopoulos (University of

	Portsmouth, UK) and Marijke Van Buggenhout (Free University Brussels, Belgium) 2. Victimization stories of unaccompanied foreign minors , Fátima Pérez Jiménez and María Garzón García (University of Malaga, Spain) 3. Moroccan teenager crossing Europe: local advances and international challenges for their protection , Elisa García-España and Jacqueline Carvalho (University of Malaga, Spain)
--	--

17:00 h. Coffee Break

17:30 h. General assembly of the ESC WG Immigration, Crime and Citizenship (Plenary room)

20:30 h. Dinner together

Friday, May 10

9:30 h. Panel sessions 4

Plenary room	Penal policies and migration policies
	Chair: Máximo Sozzo 1. Politics, migration and penalty in Argentina , Máximo Sozzo (National University of the Litoral, Argentina) 2. Brexit as a triumph of crimmigration , Diego Boza Martínez (University of Cadiz, Spain) 3. Delinquency of settled immigrants in Malaga: methodological challenges , Jacqueline Carvalho and Bertha Prado (University of Malaga, Spain)

Room A	The transformation of borders from below
	Chair: Cristina Fernández Bessa 1. Transforming Borders From Below: Shifting the Analytic Gaze of Border Criminology , Nancy Wonders (Northern Arizona University, USA) 2. Towards a theoretical typology to explore border activism in border criminology studies , Cristina Fernández-Bessa (University of A Coruna, Spain) 3. Internal bordering in the context of undeportability: border performances in Italy , Giulia Fabini (University of Bologna, Italy) 4. Migration as 'Crisis' and The Power of Cities in Troubled Times: Local Challenges to the Politics of Exclusion and Expulsion , Luis Fernandez and Nancy Wonders (Northern Arizona University, USA)

Room B	Crime and the criminalization of immigrants
	Chair: Jacqueline Carvalho da Silva 1. Are young people of migrant origin more crime prone than native youths?: a dynamic approach with data from ISRD-3 in Portugal , Gloria Fernández-Pacheco Alises (Loyola University of Andalusia, Spain) 2. Not citizens, not real people. The Italian way in criminalization of migration , Laura Scomparin and Giovanni Torrente (University of

	Turin, Italy) 3. BREAKING BAD: when the State's "reception" as the legal parent of unaccompanied immigrant minors, pushes them to the dark side of life, Núria Empez Vidal (Collectiu Hourria, Spain) and Caroline H Bledsoe (Northwestern University, USA)
--	--

11:00 h. Coffee break

11:30 h. Panel sessions 5

Plenary room	Solidarity, Sanctuary cities and Resistance against borders
	Chair: Markus González Beilfuss 1. The crime of aid for irregular immigration without profit regulated in art. 318 bis of the Spanish Criminal Code: does it protect a legitimate Rechtsgut?, Francisco Salvador de la Fuente Cardona (Complutense University of Madrid, Spain) 2. Against solidarity: the case of Ventimiglia, Federico De Salvo (School of Higher Education in Social Sciences, France) and Graziella Marturano (University of Genova, Italy) 3. Solidarity under siege: the crimmigration of activism(s) and protest against border control in Spain, Ana López-Sala (CSIC, Spain) and Iker Barbero (University of the Basque Country, Spain) 4. New Documents, New Realities? The 'neighborhood document' on the situation of undocumented migrants in Barcelona, Markus Gonzalez Beilfuss (University of Barcelona, Spain)

Room A	Protecting migrants
	Chair: Elisa García-España 1. The protection of foreigners through the Radbruch formula, Irene Galatola (La Sapienza University of Rome, Italy) 2. Deterrence of environmental crimes and migration phenomena through the proposal of an Ecocide Act, Ascensión García Ruiz (UNED, Spain) 3. Happy Together? How and Why Norway is calling for a pan-European collaboration against work-related crime, Synnøve Jahnsen (Postdoc Norwegian Research Centre [NORCE], Norway)

13:00 h. Closing ceremony (Plenary room)