Place: Ada Byron Research Building, Calle Arquitecto Peñalosa, 18, Extensión de Teatinos Campus

The Andalusian Inter-University Institute of Criminology is a university center for scientific and technical research, as well as for specialization, which aims to develop its activities in the field of penal, penitentiary, criminological and political-criminal disciplines.

The convenience of approaching crime from its causes and with the aim of preventing future criminal behavior is the reason why jurists, psychologists, social workers, police officers, doctors, journalists and other professionals see the interdisciplinary nature of Criminology as a good instrument for their professional improvement or promotion, as well as for entering new services that our evolving society is creating (victim assistance offices, technical teams in penitentiary institutions, attention to marginal groups, juvenile reform services, etc.).
