

PROGRAMME

Tuesday, 25 September 2018

Sala de Grados María Zambrano

9:00 – 9:30 Welcome

Martin Burke, José María Rosales, Rosario López

9:30 – 11:00 Inaugural Lecture – Chair: Martin Burke

Prof. Diana Mishkova, Director, Center for Advanced Study Sofia
Conceptual History and the Production of Space (the Case of Supranational Regions)

11:00 – 11:30 Break

Aulario IV

11:30 – 13:30

Conflict Resolution between Law, History and Society

Aula 7 – Chair: Anton Jansson, University of Gothenburg

Francesco di Chiara, University of Palermo

The Judicial and Extrajudicial Resolution of Conflicts during the Modern Age

Giacomo Demarchi, State University of Milan

The Constitution as Political and Legal 'Place' for the Resolution of Territorial Conflicts in 20th-Century Europe

Elisabetta Fiocchi Malaspina, University of Zurich

The Resolution of Conflicts between States in the 18th and 19th Century

From the Local to the International

Aula 8 – Chair: Norbert Götz, Södertörn University, Stockholm

Hunmi Lee, Sogang University, South Korea

Conceptual History and International Politics: The Concept of Revolution in North Korea, 1945–1972

Kamil Śmiechowski, University of Łódź

Concepts and Locality. Differences in Understanding of the Concept of Intelligentsia in Poland – The Cases of Warsaw and Łódź 1881–1945

Interdisciplinarity: Conceptual Explorations

21st International Conference on the History of Concepts

University of Málaga, 25–28 September 2018

Temporalities and Concepts

Aula 5 – Chair: Jussi Kurunmäki, Södertörn University, Stockholm & University of Helsinki

Inho Choi, The Johns Hopkins University

Historical Time, Retrocausality and Propensity of Things: Methodological Insights from an Interdisciplinary Investigation of Time

Leonor Zuiderveen Borgesius, University of Oslo

Rewilding and Restoring – New Nature and its Temporalities

Sisay Megersa Dirirsa, University of Bielefeld

The Ethiopian Empire: A Future Past Dialectics

Frederik Schröer, Max Planck Institute for Human Development, Berlin

Temporalising Exile: The Trans-Temporal Semantics of Concepts in the Tibetan Diasporic Community

Blake Ewing, University of Oxford

The Language of Time in Britain: An Analysis of 150 Years of Parliamentary Debates

15:30 – 17:30

Concepts Beyond Nation States: Towards a Comparative European History

Aula 5 – Chair: Willibald Steinmetz, Bielefeld University

Pasi Ihalainen, University of Jyväskylä

Semantic Fields of Internationalism in the UK Parliament: Macro-, Meso- and Micro-Level Analyses

Norbert Götz, Södertörn University, Stockholm & Irène Herrmann, University of Genève

Universalism vs. Particularism in Discourses on Transnational Emergency Aid

Antero Holmila, University of Jyväskylä

The Olympic Movement and the Conceptualizations of International versus Cosmopolitan

Juho Saksholm, University of Jyväskylä

Looking for ‘the Third Way’: Conceptualisations of Internationalism in the Debates of Finnish and Swedish Student- and New Left Movements, 1962–1968

Conceptual History and Neighbouring Disciplines

Aula 7 – Chair: Patricia Springborg, Humboldt University of Berlin

Heli Rantala, University of Turku

On Interdisciplinary Reading of ‘Revolution’: The Finnish Case

Michał Pospiszyl, Institute of Political Science, Polish Academy of Sciences

The Birth of Multitude in Philosophical, Medical and Theological Discourses of the Late Middle Ages

Francisco J. Bellido, Universities of Málaga and Jyväskylä

Conceptual Change in Constitutional History: Studying Spain’s Twentieth-Century Constitutional Debates

Heikki Kokko, University of Tampere

Digital Conceptual History and the Experience of Modern Belonging

Anton Jansson, University of Gothenburg

Idé- och Lärdomshistoria: An Intellectual History of Intellectual History in Sweden

Interdisciplinarity: Conceptual Explorations

21st International Conference on the History of Concepts

University of Málaga, 25–28 September 2018

Asian Perspectives: Political Concepts and Institutions

Aula 8 – Chair: Hunmi Lee, Sogang University, South Korea

Luis Botella, University of Málaga

Establishing Korean Archaeology: A Multidisciplinary Assemblage of Ideas, Institutions and Researchers (1945–1979)

Manjeet Ramgotra, SOAS University of London

The Languages of Republicanism: Self-Rule and the Public Thing

Mario López Areu, Universidad Pontificia de Comillas, Madrid

The Concept of Civil Society in Modern Indian Political Thought: Appropriation and Reconceptualisation of a Western Liberal Concept

Minju Kwon, University of Notre Dame

A Modern Girl, a Short-Haired Lady: Debating the Concept of 'Modern' in Colonial Korea

17:30 – 18:00 Break

18:00 – 19:30

Meeting

Contributions to the History of Concepts Editorial Board (Aula 7)

Book Launches

Diana Mishkova, Beyond Balkanism: The Scholarly Politics of Region Making (London: Routledge, 2018), by Diana Mishkova (Aula 5)

Kari Palonen, Parliamentary Thinking: Procedure, Rhetoric and Time (London: Palgrave Macmillan, 2018), by Kari Palonen (Aula 8)

Pasi Ihalainen, The Springs of Democracy: National and Transnational Debates on Constitutional Reform in the British, German, Swedish and Finnish Parliaments, 1917–1919 (Helsinki: Finnish Literature Society, 2017), by Pasi Ihalainen (Aula 4)

Wednesday, 26 September 2018

Aulario IV

9:00 – 11:00

Approaches and Methods in Political-Temporal Concepts

Aula 5 – Chair: Jani Marjanen, University of Helsinki

Javier Fernández-Sebastián, University of the Basque Country

Historical Parallels: An Indispensable Device for Historians (and Politicians)?

Marcos Reguera, University of the Basque Country

Computer Analysis or Hermeneutical Approach? The Path to the Discovery of Authorship of the Concept 'Manifest Destiny'

David Beorlegui, University of the Basque Country

History of Emotions and Conceptual Analysis: The Case of 'Desencanto' in the Spanish Transition

Carmelo Moreno, University of the Basque Country

Nationalism, Indivisible Goods and Detained Time: The Problems of the Recognition Policy in Democratic Negotiation

Gonzalo Capellán, University of La Rioja

'Le Moment Lamennais': The Redescription of the People and Democracy in the Iberoamerican World through the Translations of 'Modern Slavery'

The Languages of Emotions

Aula 7 – Chair: Norbert Götz, Södertörn University, Stockholm

Camila Suárez, Goldsmiths, University of London

The Conceptual History of Interest during the 16th and 17th Centuries from Usury to Emotion

Risto Turunen, University of Tampere

Quantifying Red Love and Hate: Emotion Concepts in the Political Language of Finnish Socialism, 1895–1917

Moisés Prieto, University of Bern

Hailed and Railed At: The Dictator in Concept, Narratives and Iconography around 1800

Linguistics and Translation

Aula 8 – Chair: Irène Herrmann, University of Genève

Yury Kagarlitskiy, Vinogradov Russian Language Institute, Russian Academy of Sciences

A Historical or Linguistic Discipline? Understanding Language and History through the History of Concepts

Maria Ponomareva, Higher School of Economics, Moscow

The Concept of Fatherland in the French Political Vocabulary of the Middle Ages: The Case of Le Songe du Vergier

Patricia Springborg, Humboldt University of Berlin

Greek into Arabic, Arabic into Latin

Interdisciplinarity: Conceptual Explorations

21st International Conference on the History of Concepts
University of Málaga, 25–28 September 2018

11:00 – 11:30 Break

Sala de Grados María Zambrano

11:30 – 13:00 Plenary Session – Chair: Patricia Springborg, Humboldt University of Berlin

Prof. Kari Palonen, Emeritus Professor of Political Science, University of Jyväskylä
Conceptual Explorations Around 'Politics': How to Study Conceptual History with the German Bundestag Plenary Debates?

Aulario IV

15:00 – 17:00

Conceptual History of Major Political Concepts on the Korean Peninsula during the Cold War Period

Aula 7 – Chair: Luis Botella, University of Málaga

Chaesung Chun, Seoul National University
Two Koreas' Differing Concepts of 'Self-Reliance' as an Embodiment of Sovereignty and Practical Strategy Towards Each Other

Yul Sohn, Yonsei University, Seoul
Debates on Modernization of Korea in the 1960s: The Rise and Decline of the Concept 'Nationalist Modernization'

Young Sun Ha, East Asia Institute, Seoul
The History of Conceptual Bifurcation of 'Peace' in both Koreas

Closing Gaps: Temporal Comparisons in Utopias and Beyond

Aula 5 – Chair: Jussi Kurunmäki, Södertörn University, Stockholm & University of Helsinki

Willibald Steinmetz, Bielefeld University
Historical Semantics of Temporal Comparisons: An Introduction

Michael Götzmann, Bielefeld University
Stitching Time / Space: Towards the Functions of Temporal Comparisons in Utopias and Dystopias

Kirill Postoutenko & Olga Sabelfeld, Bielefeld University
Post-War Consensus in British Parliament (1945–1959) through the Prism of Temporal Comparisons

Pablo Sánchez León, University of the Basque Country
There and Back Again: The Semantics of Utopia from Modernist to Postmodern Future

Interdisciplinarity: Conceptual Explorations

21st International Conference on the History of Concepts
University of Málaga, 25-28 September 2018

Democracy and the Political

Aula 8 – Chair: Frederik Schroër, Max Planck Institute for Human Development, Berlin

Konstantinos Bizas, University of Jyväskylä

John Dunn's Work on the History of Democracy

Ilkka Kärriylä, University of Helsinki

How Political Concepts Become Obsolete – The case of 'Economic Democracy'

Javier Gil, University of Oviedo

Interdisciplinary as Commitment and the Mixed Regime of the Moderns: On the Transformation of Rosanvallon's Conceptual History of the Political

Wiktor Marzec, Centre for Historical Research, National Research University Higher School of Economics, St Petersburg

Historical Sociology of Revolution and Welfare and Historical Semantics of Parliamentary Debates

17:00 – 17:30 Break

17:30 – 19:00

Meetings

CONCEPTA Board Meeting (Aula 7)

European Conceptual History Book Series Meeting (Aula 8)

Thursday, 27 September 2018

Aulario IV

9:00 – 11:00

Conceptualising the Environment

Aula 7 – Chair: M. Isabel Holgado, University of Málaga

Matyáš Krížkovský, Charles University, Prague

Conceptual History of 'Nuclear Security' in the Czech Ideological Environment: Nuclear Scientists and Ecological Activists (1950–2000)

Marcos Moraes Calazans, Federal University of Minas Gerais

Resilience and Systemic Thinking: The Scientific Concepts of the Mining Monopoly in the Fundão's Dam Rupture Conflict in Brazil

Cristian Roiban, West University of Timișoara

Interdisciplinarity at Work': Approaches of a Totalizing Concept

Philosophical Roads

Aula 8 – Chair: Javier Gil, University of Oviedo

Albert Rosell, Autonomous University of Madrid

Panofsky's 'Synthetic Intuition'

Alexander L. Griffiths, University of Bologna

How Martin Heidegger Contended with the Janus-Faced Ontological Question

Laura Pricop, Alexandru Ioan Cuza University, Iași, Romania

Mill's Utilitarianism as an Interdisciplinary Ethical Theory

Vladimir Glebkin, Russian Presidential Academy of National Economy and Public Administration

Pascal's Ennui and Heidegger's Langeweile: A Difference between the Concepts and their Semantic Underpinnings

Gabriel Entin, CONICET-Centro de Historia Intelectual-UNQ/UNSAM

The Political Beyond Disciplines: The Uses of Rousseau's Social Contract in Hispanic American Revolutions

11:00 – 11:30 Break

11:30 – 13:00

Left and Right: The Concept and Practice of the Main Contemporary Political Dichotomy

Aula 5 – Chair: Manuel Toscano, University of Málaga

João Cardoso Rosas, University of Minho

Making Sense of Left and Right: Multidisciplinary Approaches

Giuseppe Ballacci, University of Minho

Populism: Right-Wing, Left-Wing, or Distinctive Ideology?

Pedro Miguel Martins, University of Minho

Right and Left: A Conceptual Framework to be Submitted to Revision?

Book Launches

Gabriel Entin, ed., Rousseau en Iberoamérica. Lecturas e interpretaciones entre monarquía y revolución (Buenos Aires: SB, 2018), by Martin Burke (Aula 7)

Jussi Kurunmäki, Jeppe Nevers and Henk te Velde, eds., Democracy in Modern Europe: A Conceptual History (New York and Oxford: Berghahn Books, 2018), by Jussi Kurunmäki (Aula 8)

Aulario IV

15:00 – 17:00

Muslim Modernity: Concepts, Temporality and Emotions

Aula 5 – Chair: Margrit Pernau, Free University of Berlin

Wael Abu-'Uksa, Hebrew University, Jerusalem

Arabic Language of Modernity: Constructing an Emotional Experience, 1790–1860

Florian Zemmin, University of Bern

The Concept of Modernity in Islamic Modernism

Susanna Ferguson, Columbia University

Childraising for the Open Future: Tarbiya, Neuzeit, and the Colonial Conundrum

Daniel Kolland, Free University of Berlin

Translating, Interpreting and Applying 'Evolution' – Conceptual Struggles as Struggles of Modernity

Interdisciplinarity: Conceptual Explorations

21st International Conference on the History of Concepts

University of Málaga, 25–28 September 2018

Conceptual Transformations in Post-Napoleonic Europe

Aula 7 – Chair: Kirill Postoutenko, Bielefeld University

Heidi Hakkarainen, University of Turku

From Pedagogical to Political: The Concept of Humanism in Early Nineteenth-Century German-Speaking Newspapers and Periodicals

Koen Stapelbroek, Erasmus University Rotterdam & University of Helsinki

Liberalism in the Dutch Early Nineteenth-Century Press

Jussi Kurunmäki, Södertörn University, Stockholm & University of Helsinki

The Mediterranean Origins of 'Liberalism' in the North: Finland and Sweden in Comparison

Jani Marjanen, University of Helsinki

Revolutionary and Loyalist Patriotism in Finnish Newspapers, 1809–1840

Concepts of Belonging: Between Nationalism and Cosmopolitanism

Aula 8 – Chair: João Cardoso Rosas, University of Minho

Natalija Shikova, International Balkan University in Skopje, Macedonia & Aleksii Ylönen, United States International University, Nairobi, Kenya

Analyzing Internal and External Self-Determination: Examples from the Horn of Africa

Agustín Cosovschi, Humboldt University of Berlin

The Reinvention of Tradition: The Concept of Nationalism in Post-Yugoslav Social Sciences during the 1990s

Jan Smolenski, NCSR, The New School, New York

Critical Political Theory and Reading History Against the Grain: Bottom-Up Federalism as the Path not Taken

Marin Beroš, Institute of Social Sciences 'Ivo Pilar', Zagreb

Cosmopolitanism – Evolution from an Ethical Notion to a Political Concept

17:00 – 17:30 Break

17:30 – 19:00 History of Concepts Group General Assembly (Aula 5)

21:00 Conference Dinner

El Balneario Baños del Carmen Restaurant, Calle Bolivia 26, <http://elbalneariomalaga.com>

Bus line 11, both from campus or downtown. It is necessary to register.

Please visit the conference website at

<https://www.uma.es/21st-international-conference-history-concepts/info/114239/conference-dinner>

Friday, 28 September 2018

Aulario IV

9:00 – 11:00

Conceptual Controversies on Rights and Democracy in Europe

Aula 5 – Chair: Marta Postigo, University of Málaga

Elena García Guitián, Autonomous University of Madrid

Essentially Contested Concepts and Political Closures: An Analysis on the Political Implications of Current Uses of Democracy's Labels

Taru Haapala, University of Jyväskylä

Drafting the European Political Authority: The Consultative Assembly of the Council of Europe as an Arena of Inter-Parliamentary Conceptual Controversies

Luis Bouza, Autonomous University of Madrid

The Problematic Conception of the Public Sphere in the Narrative Turn of the European Union

Understanding the Ottoman Past

Aula 7 – Chair: Marin Beroš, Institute of Social Sciences 'Ivo Pilar', Zagreb

Mehmet Akif Berber, İstanbul 29 Mayıs University

Using Conceptual History to Understand Ottoman Credit Relations

Banu Turnaoğlu, University of Cambridge

A Conceptual History of Despotism (İstibdad) in the Ottoman Empire (1860–1923)

Florian Zemmin, University of Bern

Conceptual History and Islamic Studies

Meeting 9:30 – 11:00

History of Concepts Group Executive Board (Aula 8)

11:00 – 11:30 Break

Sala de Grados María Zambrano

11:30 – 13:00 Closing Lecture – Chair: Natalija Shikova, International Balkan University in Skopje, Macedonia

Prof. Renáta Uitz, Professor of Constitutional Law, Central European University, Budapest

Clio's Wit: The Rise of Populism as an Inspiration for Interdisciplinary Scholarship

13:00 – 13:15 Closing Remarks

