The purpose of this Agreement is to further mutual understanding between University of Málaga, Spain, and Incheon National University, Republic of Korea to enhance each institution's teaching, learning, and internationalization objectives. University of Málaga and Incheon National University agree to institute this exchange program under the following terms:

1.- Duration of the Exchange

The duration of the exchange for a student will be either for one academic year or for one semester.

2.- Number of Participants and Reciprocity

University of Málaga and Incheon National University will exchange up to 30 exchange students per year, unless this number is varied by mutual agreement.

3.- Exchange Balance

Both institutions will review the program annually for any imbalances in the number of exchange students, and will adjust the number of students appropriately throughout the duration of the Agreement, so as to endeavour to achieve parity before this Agreement expires.

All exchange students commencing study at each institution during this period of this Agreement will be counted in the overall balance of the Agreement period.

Any imbalances in a given year will be dealt with in either of the following ways:

- A. the imbalance will carry over to any subsequent Exchange Agreement period
- B. the University out of balance will be able to reduce the number of accepted students until the balance is returned.

4.- Selection of Participation and admission

Students participating in the exchange program will normally have completed at least one year of their degree program at their home institution.

The host institution will reserve the right to make final judgment on the admissibility of each student nominated for the exchange.

Students participating in this program will continue as candidates for the degree of their home institution. Transfer of credit for work undertaken will be subject to the discretion of the home institution.

The exchange student will be subject to the same rules and regulations as the students of the host institution.

The students will be required to complete all academic work and examinations associated with the courses they take at the host institution. Both institutions will provide transcripts for each student indicating the appropriate credit for the courses taken by students on the exchange program.

The students will be bound by the rules, regulations and procedures of both institutions while they are participating in the exchange program.

5.- Financial

All exchange students shall pay tuition fees only to their home institution.

Students will pay residence fees for the halls or other residences in which they are accommodated. Students will also be responsible for the costs of food, medical insurance, travel, language courses and all other personal expenses which might be incurred while participating in the exchange program.

6.- Responsibilities

University of Málaga and Incheon National University agree to assist each exchange student by:

- Providing pre-departure material, and post-arrival orientation,
- Providing the necessary documents and information to enable the exchange student to obtain the correct permit /visa,
- Advising for appropriate accommodation, if required,
- Establishing an institutional body, or utilizing an existing body, to oversee the exchange program, and to consider and rule on those policy matters related to the program,
- Designating an administrative contact to deal with all correspondence related to this program,
- Providing student support and advisory services.
