SELECTION CRITERIA

Applicants must fulfil the following criteria:

1.-Elegibility.

- send the required application docs by the established deadline.
- be National of any of the partner countries published in the call for applications.
- be registered at the same level of studies that is applying for (for students).
- UMA students must respect the maximum stay of 12 months funded by Erasmus+, in the same level of studies.

2.-Academic requirements.

- be accepted and assessed positively (<50%) by home and host university, according to:

Selection Criteria	Percentage (%)
--------------------	----------------

Planned study or work programme for the stay	45%
CV and academic record (only students)	40%
Language Certificate	15%

3.-Language requirements: UMA will not request documents providing the level of language to the applicants, however each home university will ensure the candidates meet the language requirements to be able to take advantage of the stay. Language certifications will be valued in the assessment, but not compulsory.

Assessment

All applications will be assessed by an Experts Commission from each thematic field at home and host universities with a 50% of the final mark respectively. In case of a conflict of interests in any assessment of partner universities, it should be a specific committee of the University of Malaga who assesses 100 % the candidate.

All selected candidates must comply with the requirements of both home and host university regarding all the requested documents and proofs of the stay.
