

Scientific and organising committee:

Ángel Galán Sánchez (Universidad de Málaga)

Rodrigo da Costa Dominguez (Universidade do Minho)

Federico Gálvez Gambero (Universidad de Málaga)

Organisers:

Research project "Circuitos financieros, crecimiento económico y guerra (siglos XV-XVI)" (UMA18-FEDERJA-098)

Research project "Sistemas fiscales y construcción estatal: Castilla, centros y periferias (1250-1550)" (PID2021-126283NB-100)

Sponsor:

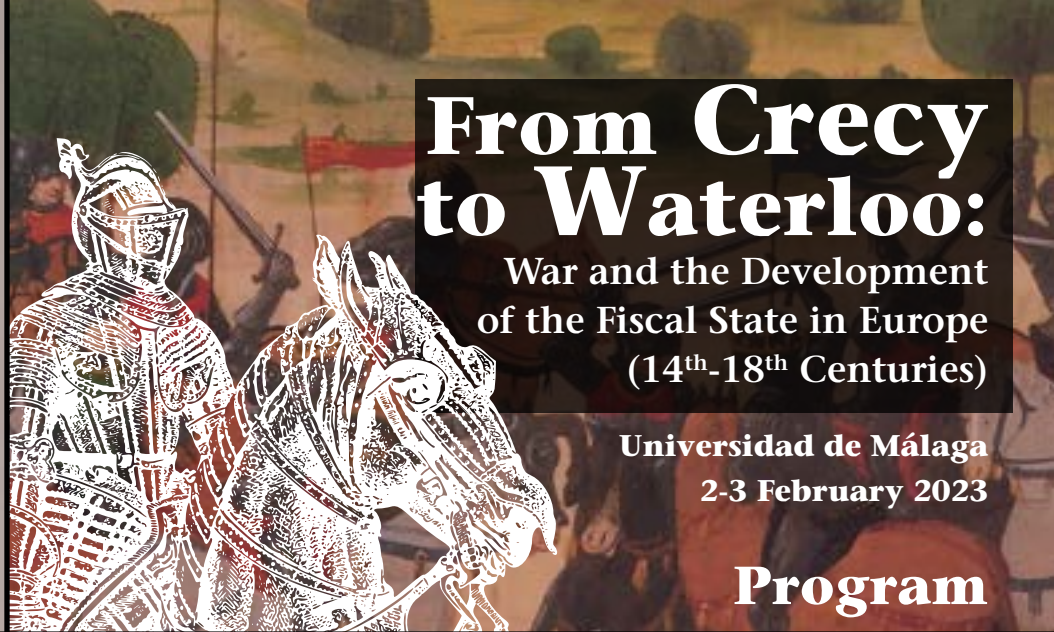

Sociedad Española de Estudios Medievales

From Crecy to Waterloo:

War and the Development of the Fiscal State in Europe
(14th-18th Centuries)

Universidad de Málaga
2-3 February 2023

From Crecy to Waterloo:

War and the Development of the Fiscal State in Europe (14th-18th Centuries)

Universidad de Málaga
2-3 February 2023

Program

February 2 Afternoon

15:30-16:00 Institutional opening

Keynote lecture

16:00-17:00 Philip Hoffman (California Institute of Technology) War, Taxation, and Spending: Middle Ages to the 19th century

First session: War and taxation in Late Medieval states

17:00-17:20 Anne Curry (University of Southampton) Who paid for the Hundred Years War?

17:20-17:40 Rodrigo da Costa Dominguez (Universidade do Minho), José Manuel Triano Milán (Universidad de Málaga), Federico Gálvez Gambero (Universidad de Málaga) War effects on taxation in Castile and Portugal during the Late Middle Ages

17:40-18:00 Antoni Furió (Universitat de València) War, taxation and public debt in a composite state: the Crown of Aragon in the 14th and 15th centuries

18:00-18:30 Coffee break

18:30-19:30 Discussion

February 3 Morning

Second session: War and the construction of Early Modern empires

10:30-10:50 Şevket Pamuk (Boğaziçi University) New series for tax revenues of states in Europe and other regions, 1500-1914 (in collaboration with Kivanç Karaman)

10:50-11:10 Carlos Álvarez Nogal (Universidad Carlos III de Madrid) The cost of an armada of Philip II: soldiers, ships and crew

11:10-11:30 Jari Eloranta (University of Helsinki) Reconciling state capacity, fiscal states, and empires in the long-run historical analysis

11:30-12:00 Coffee break

12:00-13:00 Discussion

February 3 Afternoon

Third session: War in the Atlantinc world during the 18th century

15:30-15:50 José Ignacio de Andrés Ucendo (Universidad del País Vasco) Victim of its own success? The 17th Castilian fiscal state and the decline of the Castilian economy

15:50-16:10 Henric Häggqvist (Uppsala University) Trade taxes, fiscal capacity, and war, 1720-1815

16:10-16:30 Jeremy Land (University of Helsinki) Reinforcing mercantilism: Seven Years' War debt and Britain's efforts to make America pay

16:30-17:00 Coffee break

17:00-18:00 Discussion

Closing lecture

18:00-19:00 John Moore (Walsh College) A lone republic: crafting state capacity from a colonial past in the United States, 1789-1832