Greetings from the Vice-Chancellor for International Affairs

Dear International Student,

Welcome to the University of Málaga. We have designed this guide with some accommodation tips so that you can find the available offers in a unified manner. I remind you that the International Relations office is at your disposal whenever you need help.

Best regards,

Zaida Díaz
Vice-Chancellor for International Affairs

Info about The residence

- Apartments with two and three bedrooms, double or single. The plaintiffs share a bathroom, a living room and a small kitchen with the necessary kitchenware.
- Students will live in an enclosed area, with restaurant service, laundry, assembly hall and 24-hour surveillance. There is a cleaning service for the apartments twice a week.
- Students must bring their own bedding or rent it from the residence.
- Accommodation prices are set depending on the students' income level and room type.
- Electricity and water costs are paid as separate fees, the cost of which is shared among the students who share the apartment

 This type of accommodation allows international staff with limited economic resources to stay in the home of an elderly person, who is looking for company.

Profile of the applicant:

- Be over 18 years of age and be enrolled at the University of Malaga.
- Not suffer from any infectious disease.
- Not to have mental disorders.
- Solidarity and willingness to keep the elderly company.
- Accompany her to the doctor and in administrative procedures.
- Buy medicines, food, etc.
- Activities agreed upon by both.

Costs and expenses:

- Food and hygiene expenses

Requirements

- If you are selected to participate in this program, you will be interviewed and given a home visit

Request

- You must fill in the following form
- Send it to alojamientomayores@uma.es

Important:

Due to the pandemic, in recent years, some older people decided to withdraw from the program. Therefore, we advise you to contact alojamientomayores@uma.es to find out the effective availability before filling in the application form.

These residences are NOT part of the University of Malaga, but they DO have an agreement with the UMA that was in compliance with certain standards.
