Arrival in Malaga

AIRPORT/ RAILWAY/ BUS

Airport

Arriving at the international airport "Pablo Ruiz Picasso" (only 12 Km from Malaga city centre), there are three ways for travelling into town:

TAXI

A taxi costs between 15/22 € and takes roughly 15 minutes to reach the city centre. The rank is located directly outside the arrivals terminal.

BUS

There is a bus into town every 30 minutes, line A. A ticket costs 3.00€. The stop is located directly outside the arrivals terminal.

Train

Trains leave the station connected by a pedestrian walkway to the departure terminal every 30 minutes, and a ticket to Malaga costs 1.80€.

Visitors are advised to carry some cash on them when they arrive in Malaga (50 € ought to be enough).

Additionally, buses do not accept anything larger than 5.00 € bills.

Railway

The Malaga-Maria Zambrano Railway Station connects the city to the capital of Spain through the High-Speed line (AVE) Malaga-Cordoba-Madrid in a two-hour and a half journey. The Malaga-Cordoba-Seville route takes 1 hour and 55 minutes.

Furthermore, the railway network connects the capital to other areas in Malaga located on the Costa del Sol, Valle del Guadalhorce, and the Airport through Malaga's regional lines.

Bus Station

Malaga's Bus Station establishes connections between the capital, Malaga's municipalities, and the main Spanish and European cities. In addition, there is a Bus Station in Muelle Heredia, at the city centre near Malaga's Port, which connects to several localities of the metropolitan area.

PROGRAMME

The University of Malaga's ERASMUS + International Staff Week 2022 is a training and exchange week for European Higher Education institutions' staff.

During this week, participants will attend workshops and talks given by the University of Malaga's staff about services and programmes offered by the University, as well as the culture of the region.

This event is a great opportunity to establish links and collaborations among the participating universities' professionals, thus contributing to the international projection of the University of Malaga and the Higher Education institutions represented.

Staying in Malaga

MEDITERRANEAN CITY

A city with a rich historic and cultural tradition, Malaga was founded by the Phoenicians around 800 B.C. and later was colonized by Iberians, Greeks, Romans, Arabs and Christians. Its privileged position on the shores of the Mediterranean, its mild climate and the friendliness of its inhabitants have all meant that the capital of the Costa del Sol has, throughout its history, sustained excellent trade and cultural relations all over the world. Nowadays, Malaga is a modern, cosmopolitan and welcoming city with over 600,000 inhabitants, which has successfully developed its commercial, industrial and tourist sectors. The climate, the warmth of its inhabitants and the light, all contribute to make Malaga a wonderful place to live in.

Malaga is a Mediterranean city with a very mild climate. Winter temperatures very rarely drop below 10°C and in autumn and spring the average temperature is about 20°C, although evenings can be a lot cooler. Average rainfall for the region is normally quite low.

Regular opening hours for small shops from 9.30 a.m. to 1.30 p.m. and from 5 p.m. to 8.30 p.m. There are many shopping centres open from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. Although shops are usually closed on Sundays, there are a number of small grocers and delicatessens, which are open in the city centre during the weekends.

Our culture

FESTIVITIES, GASTRONOMY, ENTERTAINMENT

Festivities

Several festivities are held in Malaga every year. The most famous and meaningful ones are "Feria de Agosto" (August Fair) and "Semana Santa" (Easter Holy Week). However, there are other dates in which the city will be decked out and full of people: Fiestas de San Juan, fiesta de la Virgen del Carmen, Carnaval and fairs.

Gastronomy

Andalusian gastronomy is based on the Mediterranean diet: local and fresh ingredients such as vegetables, fruit, fish and olive oil. Our cuisine and our culture in general, is the result of a convergence of cultures. Romans, Arabs, Greeks, Phoenicians and Visigoths, all contributed to the history of the Andalusian gastronomy.

Tapas are small appetizers, which are served in bars and restaurants throughout Spain. Sometimes the price includes a drink. You can eat tapas that consist in a small portion of any type of meal. You can actually have a full meal with tapas.

Meals are served late in the evening compared with the rest of Europe: breakfast is normally eaten between 7.30 a.m. and 10.30 a.m. Lunch is served from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. and dinner from 8.00 p.m. and 11 p.m. However, most of restaurants adapt their times to the European norms and will serve food earlier.

Entertainment and Leisure

Picasso's hometown is becoming more and more recognized as an important cultural destination. The capital city of La Costa del Sol offers a wide variety of museums and exhibitions as well as theatres and halls.

You should not miss the opportunity to get into our history and customs, our learning about the finest international art.

Weekends fun

Malaga has an exciting and varied nightlife. While the city center's shops close, numerous bars offer foreigners the chance to get to know the locals.

During the weekend, countless people gather there to visit the bars and pubs to enjoy the night scene in Malaga. The locals usually do not go partying before midnight, and it is normal to go back home after sunrise, but not without having some breakfast on the way back.
