15. Oh grief
Madrigals to four voices

London 1599
John Bennet (c.1575-c.1614)

Transcribed and edited by Nancho Alvarez http://tomasluisdevictoria.org
Oh grief Bennet

_ my paths each creature balking wild and unhallowed woods, _ my paths each creature balking wild and unhallowed woods, unhallow...

fly, my paths each creature balking wild and unhallowed woods seem tiring with my ed woods, wild and unhallowed woods seem tiring haunt-ed woods wild and unhallowed woods seem tiring woods seem tiring with my walking.

walk ing. Earth with my tears are drunk, air with my walking. Earth with my tears are drunk air red with my walking. Earth with my tears are drunk air ing. Earth with my tears are drunk air with my with my sighs tor - ment - ed heav - ens with my sighs tor - ment - ed, heav - ens with my my dees

ed.
In
and dis - con - tent - ed and dis - con - tent - ed. and dis - con - tent - ed, and dis - con - tent - ed. In and dis - con - tent - ed, and dis - con - tent - ed. In
and dis - con - tent - ed and dis-con-tent - ed. In Oh grief Bennet

Music engraving by LilyPond 2.18.2—www.lilypond.org